SPECIAL attention is called to the new advertisement of the Bourbon Lumber Co., in this issue. Prizes amounting to $50 will be given to the five nearest correct guesses of the winners in the coming Democratic Primary Election. The contest opened March 2d, and closes May 31st.

The petition asking for the pardon of Mr. J. L. Bosley, former postmaster here, is now in the hands of the President. Besides the hundreds of names signed to it, there were a large number of personal telegrams sent to the President. Owing to the inauguration, Judge Evans has decided to postpone passing sentence upon Mr. Bosley for five days beyond the time set. This will give the President time to examine into the merits of the case. There is hardly any doubt but that a full pardon will be granted.

Both of these gentlemen are well known to our citizens, and if elected it is safe to say the business of the office will be conducted in a manner satisfactory to every citizen of the county.

Residences Burned.

The old Harvey Kerr house, near North Middletown, owned by Mr. Henry Bryan, was burned about an o'clock Sunday afternoon. The wind was blowing a hurricane, and the fire spread to the surrounding fields, and Roger Talbot lost a considerable amount of fencing. The house was occupied by Mr. John Bennett and family, and they lost most of their household effects. The residence of Jno. Will Henry in Flat Rock precinct was discovered on fire Sunday; it was under good headway but through hard work of neighbors was extinguished. Damage slight.

FOUND DEAD ON THE TRACK.

Sheep Owens, Notorious Chicken Thief, Frantically Mangled.

The mangled remains of "Sheep" Owens, a notorious chicken thief, was found on the L. & N. tracks about fifty feet below the Russell Cave pike crossing, by the crew of a freight train early Sunday morning. He had in all probability been run over and killed by the fast line which arrives here at 5:30. By his side was found a bag containing six chickens and two turkeys, which were not injured. Notwithstanding that his body was frightfully mangled, a bottle of cheap whisky in one of his pockets was not broken. His body was buried in the Potter's Field at Lexington.

Severe Wind Storm

A severe wind storm passed over this city and county Sunday. During the entire day the wind blew at a terrific rate, and considerable damage was reported throughout the county. At New Forest, on the W. W. Massie place, the roof of the building which is now occupied by Mr. Ed. Burke, was blown off. A large tree in the yard of Mr. W. A. Hill, in this city, was blown down, narrowly missing the house. A large section of galvanized iron on the city fences, signs and bill boards were blown down.

At Millersburg, the wind did considerable damage. Part of the cornice of the Presbyterian church was blown off; also part of the roof of the male college, and Clarke & Woolens warehouse. Wallace Sharon's tobacco barn was blown from its foundation.

During the storm a cabin on the Frank Isgrig farm was burned, and two tenant houses on the Renick place.

At Cynthiana, one house was burned and a dozen other small fires occurred, with small loss.

At Centerville, on Sunday afternoon, a colored camp meeting was in progress. The wind picked the church building up and completely turned it around. The pastor happened to be just in the midst of an exhortation describing the end of the world, and when the sudden reversing of the building came the congregation thought the end had come. It is said the confessions of sins made during the excitement covered everything from chicken stealing to highway robbery.

Meeting of Fiscal Court.

At the meeting of the Bourbon Fiscal Court, yesterday, a committee was appointed to confer with the American Long Distance Telephone Company in regard to granting them a franchise through the county for a telephone line. There is a well developed plan on foot to build an electric railroad from Paris to Sharsburg, calling at North Middletown and Flat Rock. The promoters are said to be Mr. R. J. Neely, Mr. Henry Powers and Mr. T. Earl Ashbrook, of this city, and Mr. Smith of Harrison County, and Mr. Alexander, of Bath county. A committee was appointed by the court to confer with these gentlemen, relative to the right of way.

The State Central Committee has appointed Albert Rice, Lytt Purnell and Russell Mann, County Committeemen to fill the vacancies of E. B. January and Joseph Williams, who have resigned, and W. B. Pinckard, who has removed from his precinct.

Trophies of The Chinese War.

Capt. Chas. Winn has on exhibition at the store of Winn & Lowry a collection of Chinese war trophies which were presented to him by his uncle, Mr. Robt. Winn, who went through the entire Chinese campaign, these trophies being captured by him at Pekin. They consist of a battle axe, a sword, bows and arrows, etc. The sword is a massive affair, about four feet in length and weighing close to twenty-five pounds. It was used for chopping off the heads of prisoners captured, and on the handle can plainly be seen traces of blood. The battle axe is about ten feet in length. The axe itself is more like a sword, being about three feet long and slightly curved. In the hands of a strong man either of these weapons would be capable of doing fearful execution.
